

Conducting a Voter Registration Drive in New York

Voter Registration Deadline

- Mailed registration applications must be postmarked by no later than the 25th day before Election Day and received by no later than the 20th day before Election Day.
- The deadline for in-person registration is the 25th day before Election Day.

Getting Started

Training Requirement: New York does not require training for registration drives.

Notification and Registration Requirements: New York does not have notification requirements for registration drives.

Compensation Restrictions: Do not pay registration drive participants based on how many registrations they collect.

Obtaining Applications

State Form: Blank state voter registration applications may be obtained from a county elections office or downloaded and printed from the New York State Board of Elections website.

Federal Form: The federal mail-in voter registration application may also be used in voter registration drives.

Photocopying Blank Forms: Blank forms may be photocopied and used in voter registration drives.

Handling Applications

Incomplete Applications: Do not fill in any missing information on a registration form unless you have permission from the applicant.

Photocopying Completed Applications: There is no law or rule prohibiting photocopying or retaining information from completed registration applications. A voter's date of birth, signature, full or partial Social Security Number, and driver's license number should be removed before copying any application.

Submitting Completed Applications: Return completed applications to the appropriate county elections office by the 25th day before Election Day or earlier.

This Guide was prepared by FELN staff who are not licensed to practice law in New York and FELN intends that the information contained herein is used only as a general guide. This document should not be used as a substitute for consultation with a licensed New York legal professional.

Last updated August 2017

For more information, visit www.fairelectionsnetwork.com